attended. MES. LINCOLN'S WARDROBE. Throughout the day, yesterday, the establishment of Mr. Brady, No. 609 Broadway, was thronged with visitors, the most of whom, as on former days, had been attracted thither in order to gratify their curiosity by an inspection of the droses and other articles belonging to Mrs. coln, which are there exhibited for sale. Indeed, the crowd which called at the rooms yesterday greatly exceeded in number that of any former day since the receipt of the goods, the spacious exhibition rooms being packed to suffocation, especially during the afternoon, when no less than one thousand visitors were in continuous attendance at the apartments. The visitors are confined to no particular class of the community, welldressed exquisites and the fashionably-attired from Grace Church. The ceremonies were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Morgan, assisted by Rev. Charles Jackson, D.D. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. J. Woodward, Haven, John C. Creen, T. Hall Falie, E.-ra. P. Davis, James J. Roosevelt, Sidney Mason, Benjamin H. Field and David Thompson. Besides the immediate f. e. dis and relatives of the deceased gentleman, there were present a number of our prominent merchauts, amongst whom we noticed Messrs. Adrian Iselin, Wm. Gebhard and Wm. B. Cooper. At the conclusion of the service the remains were conveyed to Greenwood Cemetery for interment.
